

Kevin Saville

Dear Parishioners of St. Patrick's

I am pleased to let my name stand as a candidate for the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC). My family and I have attended St. Patrick's since 2004, after moving to Ottawa from Montreal.

I have a background in executive leadership and management and currently work as a management consultant. I think I could contribute to the welfare of our faith community by providing our Pastor and the Parish Pastoral Council with advice and support in pastoral planning, developing parish policies and programs, and addressing any issues of concern that might arise for our community.

In both my personal and professional life, I have a specific interest in social justice and working with vulnerable individuals and groups. As a former social worker, I have worked with troubled youth and their families, minority communities, and newcomers to Canada.

I believe that one of God's gifts to me is my interest in contemplation and action. This ability helps me to reflect on issues and work with others to find effective solutions to specific challenges and problems.

If the Parish chooses to offer me the opportunity to be a member of the Parish Pastoral Council, I will certainly try to serve the interests of the Parish to the best of my abilities.
